

---

Dear Customers,

With an aim to create a greener environment and enhance the statement service, following the provision of email eStatements for sole account, we will soon extend email eStatement service to customers with joint account. The revised Terms and Conditions for email eStatement Service to Personal Customers will apply to the provision of email eStatement service on both sole accounts and joint accounts by the Bank to its personal customers.

The revised Terms and Conditions for Email eStatement Service to Personal Customers have been published on the official website of the Bank. Please click the link below to read:

Terms and Conditions of Email eStatement services for personal customers

The revision will take effect on 7th Aug 2017 and will apply to all customers who maintain or use email eStatement service of the Bank as of that date.

Thank you for your attention and support!

HSBC Bank (China) Company Limited

July 19th, 2017